	0:01	0:47	The tragedy is that the Palestinian Authority cannot disclose all the information it has. I want to quote some examples, only in the Gaza Strip, I do not want to make it longer by including the West Bank. We, in the Gaza Strip, a whole year before the Intifada, all the staff of the Hamas Movement and the Islamic Jihad were under the protection of the Preventive Security Force and the Palestinian security apparatus. This is the main reason that these staff members... We prevented a large number of assassination operations that Israel has planned for. We cannot disclose all that we have done, and consequently... when this Intifada began we did not constitute a barrier in face of any Palestinian faction that wished to express its warrior position and protect the Palestinian people and the interests of the Palestinian Authority.
